

Part 2.
The gender pay gap

Progress on Australia's gender pay gap has stopped

The overall gender pay gap is unchanged from 2020-21.

Wages for men and women have increased, but for the first time since WGEA started collecting employer data, the gap between men and women's average wages remains exactly the same.

Table 1: Australia's gender pay gap

	Average Female	Average Male	Difference	GPG
2021	$87,449	$113,241	$25,792	22.8%
2022	$90,309	$116,906	$26,596	22.8%

Chart 10: Change in full-time and all employees gender pay gap (%)

